

St. LaSalle Tuition Assistance Fund

Scholarship Application

St. John Baptist de La Salle, the founder of the Brothers of the Christian Schools and the Patron Saint of Educators, and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's Sisters of Charity both made it their mission to educate the poor. This fund is intended to assist those who financially are unable to consider attending a Catholic school.

- Only students from families whose annual income does not exceed 35% above what is determined as the poverty level are eligible.
