Seton LaSalle is not responsible for any vehicle damage or articles left in vehicles while parked on school grounds, nor for loss, damage, theft, or any other cause to, or by the vehicle, while parked on school grounds. Additionally, the school will not be responsible for any vehicle incident, item loss, or personal injury reported during private transportation to and from the premises.

Any car parked on Seton LaSalle High School property is subject to being searched. Violations of the Driving/Parking policy may result in disciplinary points and/or the revocation of Parking privileges. Parking privileges may also be contingent upon student attendance, behavior concerns, and tardiness records.
